

Taiwo Bada opens New Facility for North Carolina Rehab Services

A University of Lagos trained physical therapist, Taiwo Bada, PT, Owner and CEO of the thriving North Carolina Rehab Services recently opened a new facility for his Physical Therapy practice. In an impressive ribbon cutting/opening ceremony in Wadesboro, NC witnessed by his wife Feyi, his mother and a host of friends and well-wishers on June 6, 2009, Mr. Taiwo Bada PT (center) is seen here cutting the ribbon to officially opened the new PT facility. Mr. Taiwo Bada was joined for the occasion by his mother, Janet Bada, far left, and on the back row, from left, Lynn Edwards, executive director of the Anson County Chamber of Commerce, Wadesboro Mayor Bill Thacker, special guest speaker, Dr. Fidelis Edosomwan from Americare, and Todd Moore, Chamber board chairman. Nigeria Physiotherapy Network joins colleagues from all over the world in congratulating Mr. Taiwo Bada for his giant strides and extending his network of PT practice in North Carolina. Kudos to a worthy Ambassador of Nigeria Physiotherapy training programs.

Toolbox

Print

PDF

Send to a friend

Subscribe to RSS

Published

00:36:09 18.06.2009

/en/About-Us/PhysioNews-and-Other-News/News-Details?newsid=12&pdfview=1